Keeping you updated with the latest cardholder data security compliance information

February 20, 2013

Upcoming 2013 PCI Training Save These Dates

Reserve your time now for upcoming training to broaden your knowledge of Payment Card Industry (PCI) standards, hosted by Chase Paymentech and MasterCard®.

PCI Standards Training

Two full days of PCI 360 Training

- May 8th and 9th in Toronto, Canada,
- September 10th and 11th in Purchase, New York, and
- October 9th and 10th in Dallas, Texas.

If you are responsible for the day-to-day Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS) compliance within your company, this training can help you gain the additional insight into the PCI DSS and associated compliance validation process. This highly-interactive course is for technical implementers and taught by Payment Brand, Acquirer/Issuer and QSA representatives.

These classes are offered just for Chase Paymentech merchants for $100 per person. Registration information will be sent to you approximately six weeks before the scheduled event.
